TRUMAN MAKES NO EFFORT TO PICK A RUNNING-MATE

Names of Gov. Lane and Robert F. Wagner, Jr., Suggested

DRAFTING PLATFORM

Civil Rights Plank To Be the Center of Controversy

NEW YORK, July 8.—(INS)—It is still "no" today on the Draft Eisenhower boom. The general told members of a "Draft Ike" motorized torchlight parade last night that his statement of two days ago still stands. From the balcony of his Morningside Drive home, the Columbia University president said: "I am honored and flattered to have you come up to see me. I have no speech to make. My statement two nights ago still stands."

By William Theis (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—President Truman has made no effort to "hand-pick" a running-mate in advance of next week's Democratic Convention but the names of two Easterners were being strongly considered today by Administration lieutenants.

The Vice-Presidential attention centered on Governor William Preston Lane of Maryland and Robert F. Wagner, Jr., son of the senior United States Senator from New York.

That was the latest word in the Truman camp as determined advocates of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower for the Presidential nomination pushed their campaign and the party's platform-drafters got set for a blow-off on the Civil Rights issue.

The convention Resolutions Subcommittee scheduled public testimony today on the Labor and Civil Rights planks of the 1948 platform. James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO, condemned the Taft-Hartley Act and called for a "Roosevelt Platform" in a prepared statement summarizing the labor organization's recommendations.

Although Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath told reporters that he has not discussed vice-presidential possibilities with Mr. Truman, there was evidence that White House advisers were giving the problem plenty of thought.

The emphasis on Lane and young Wagner was added to earlier speculation on Sen. Joseph P. Mahoney of Wyoming, Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, Sen. Millard Tydings of Maryland and ex-National Chairman James A. Farley of New York.

Contrary to some predictions that Mr. Truman, confident of a first-ballot nomination, would seek a

TELLS OF MENACE OF COMMUNISM TO WORLD

Threatens Democracy and Religion The Kiwanians Are Reminded

DR. THOMAS, SPEAKER

PENNDLE, July 8.—Dr. William A. Thomas, former supervising principal of Langhorne-Middletown high school, gave an informative talk on Communism at the dinner-meeting of the Bucks County Lincoln Highway Kiwanis Club, held at the Royal Gardens, Bensalem township, on Tuesday evening.

Vice-president Paul Sauerby assumed charge of the meeting in the absence of the president. He announced that on July 13th the club will journey to Camp Oceanickon, Point Pleasant. The group will assemble at Frank's Diner at 5:45 p. m., and leave en masse. The Boy Scouts will give pointers on scouting and other entertainment has been arranged.

William Spencer Irwin, who was in charge of the program, introduced Dr. Thomas. At present Dr. Thomas is instructor of English and assistant football coach at Loch Haven Teachers' College.

According to Dr. Thomas "Communism is a menace to our democracy as well as to our religion. Most of us do not know what communism actually is. We don't teach it in our schools and as a result, we are ignorant when the subject comes up."

"Within the last two centuries, two philosophers have sprung up, namely: anarchism and communism. There is no form of government in anarchism; man by nature is altruistic. The anarchist says the laws have made man bad. Here we have a fallacy, because man by nature, must have laws to control him. The communist, on the other hand, believes in government control of the individual, but the principal of 'equality' is stressed."

"Communism goes back about a century ago. Karl Marx noticed

Snyder revealed today that arrangements for the September opening of the Center have started with distribution to key area industries of survey blanks on which employees can make known their subject matter preferences.

NUMEROUS CASES AT COURT SESSION

New Judge of Elections Named for Milford Township

OTHER COURT CASES

DOYLESTOWN, July 8.—In a session of miscellaneous court, Tuesday, Judge Calvin S. Boyer authorized the appointment of a new Judge of Elections in Milford township and will name viewers for the purpose of laying out roads in a development in Warminster township.

In Quarter Sessions Court, the resignation of Roland P. Felix as Judge of Elections in Milford township, Shelly District, was accepted. Mr. Felix has procured employment which prevents him from serving in his official capacity.

Following a petition presented by a number of men and women, who signed it, Judge Keller directed that Arthur Mohr serve as the new Judge of Elections, filling Mr. Felix's unexpired term of office. One of the petitioners was Register of Wills Eugene T. Rosenberger, Milford Square.

Bearing the signatures of a number of inhabitants, a petition asking for the appointment of viewers was filed in the Quarter Sessions' Court yesterday.

The petition stipulates that the Court appoint viewers who will lay out certain roads in Warminster township in a tract, formerly known as the Philadelphia Speeding Plan. The tract begins at Madison avenue.

Following a hearing, which lasted nearly all day, Judge Calvin S. Boyer, in a session of miscellaneous court made a tentative order in which he allowed a Quakertown mother, Mrs. Lydia DiRocco, to take her three children, Gloria, James and Joseph, to her father's home in Delmar, Del., to live until September 29.

The defendant in the case is James DiRocco, Perkasi restaurant and taproom proprietor, who sought the custody of his three children. He has been paying a support order of $35 a week for the support of the children since January 6, when President Judge Hiram H. Keller made the order following the defendant's arrest by his estranged wife on December 3, 1947.

The father of the three children, who lives in East Rockhill township, testified that he had procured a four-room apartment in the "Daub home," which is next door to his barroom and restaurant.

Mrs. DiRocco, who testified she was afraid to live in premises that close to her estranged husband, maintained it was unsuitable for her children since there is no fence between the premises where the liquor is sold and the children would be living.

The husband-defendant said he couldn't travel 165 miles every time he wanted to see his three children. "It will take me four hours to travel that distance by car," he said.

The mother, under cross-examination, denied that the children were to live with their grandfather in Delaware merely to help work on a 160-acre truck farm. The oldest of the children will begin school in September.

Judge Boyer informed the defendant-father that if he wishes to have custody of the children in Bucks county he must be ready to submit a plan at the next hearing. Judge Calvin S. Boyer yesterday granted a parole to Rocco Spinelli.

CHILDREN IN SUMMER

These summer days bring increased obligations to parents.
Children at play are subject to accidents which often seem trifling, and for that reason are not given proper attention.

A splinter in a child's foot can result in weeks of pain and suffering, or death. Mary Alice Williams, a 10-year-old at Oklahoma City, playing barefoot, ran a splinter in her right foot. Her mother did not give it immediate attention.

The little girl limped around or a week, finally complaining that she was sick and that her throat hurt. Next day her throat swelling and her head was starting to draw back between her shoulders. The doctor diagnosed it as a severe case of tetanus. For three weeks she was kept under the influence of drugs, except at intervals, during which she immediately went into convulsions.
A tube was placed in her throat
to prevent it from closing entirely.

Mary Alice is better now after five weeks in the hospital, where she will remain for further treatment to overcome the effects of the poison in little hands that have been twisted out of shape.
All the result of a splinter in the foot. Heed the warnings of doctors not to take anything for granted when a child is injured,
even slightly.

PLANS FOR THE DRAFT

The Army's plans for filling its ranks through the new peacetime selective service act have now been made public. According to Secretary Royall, it will begin calling for inductees soon after September 22. Inductions will be small at first but later they will rise to 30,000 a month. It is expected that between 225,000 and 250,000 youths will have been inducted before June 30, 1949.

At first glance, the quota of inductees for the 1949 fiscal year seems small. During the war conscription took that many men and boys, or more, month after month.
But the new law exempts most veterans and provides for deferring most men with wives or other dependents. Within the ages between 19 and 25, therefore, the majority of non-veterans and unmarried men stand a great risk of being called.

That explains why the National Guard, which has had difficulty in bringing its units up to strength, is no longer faced with this trouble. It also explains why recruiting for the regular services is running high. And it explains why the Army anticipates that it will quickly sign up 110,000 18-year-olds for a year's service, as the law contemplates.

Young Americans reason that if they are likely to be drafted
they might as well step forward and get it over with somehow or other.

Two diametrically opposite plans for running the government will be presented to the voter between now and November. He can pay his taxes and take his choice.

Inside Your Congress

Fourth of July

SAMUEL B. PETTINGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

On the afternoon of July 4, 1826,
the 50th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, countries spared their horses down the slopes of Monticello, in the Virginia hills.
As they proceeded to Richmond,
Charleston, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and to the tiny hamlets hid between ocean and wilderness, the newspapers, day by day, in ever-widening circles, carried the headlines, "Jefferson Is Dead."
The news traveled slowly. There was no telephone, no telegraph, no
radio. It did not reach John Adams.
The second President, who had also signed the Declaration of Independence, was also destined to die
on the same day—a coincidence which, as it became known, seemed like a divine portent. Adams, up in Massachusetts, on this 4th day of July 1826, was thinking of those who had signed the great declaration in the prime of a golden youth, 50 years ago. He whispered, "Jefferson still lives," and crossed the dark frontier to immortality. On the same day, God's finger touched to silence the hearts of these two giants of liberty.

A few days later at Monticello, on the hill slope Jefferson had climbed so often, shaded by trees he loved,
a stone slab was laid, inscribed with these words written by the man himself:

"Here was buried
Thomas Jefferson
Author of the Declaration of American Independence
of
The Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom
and Father of the University of Virginia."

But despite these proofs of his passing, for over a century they were never wholly believed. A great political party did not agree that Jefferson was dead. Millions refused to believe that the essence of Jefferson, that which made him "Jefferson," and without which the man would now be nameless and forgotten, the principles he fought for, and the truths he taught, had been buried beneath the slab.

There have been times when this faith of his friends has been shaken.
One of these friends was Abraham Lincoln. Only 33 years later Lincoln said, "The principles of Jefferson are the definitions and axioms
of a free society, and yet they are denied and evaded, with no small show of success."

A generation later, Senator George
F. Hoar, of Massachusetts, Republican, held "the perfect assurance that on any question of liberty, it is the opinion of Thomas Jefferson stand on one side and the opinion of mankind on the other, the world will, in the end, come around to his way of thinking."

We come to 1948. We return to the city by the Potomac, where Jefferson was the first President to swear to protect and defend constitutional government, its separation of powers, its checks and balances, and we find that these checks and balances have been slightly referred to by a Democratic attorney general of the United States, as "gadgets," and we find many other men using many other words.
We are led to ask if any part of Jefferson has escaped mortality.
The axioms of a free society
are said to belong to the "horse and buggy days." These expressions, differing in form, are identical in object and effect, the supplanting of the principles of free government." Such was Lincoln's description of similar sneers at Jefferson in 1859.

Still the question remains. In fact, with the single possible exception of the insanity that men call war, the most serious of all questions facing America and the masses of mankind everywhere is whether
"Jefferson still lives."

These tablets are only half sacharin plus are of solid cedar and the sturdy half dulcin. In the latter lies the improved taste and the overcom- ing of the usual metallic or acid taste. They begin at 25¢ a hundred.

red, going to $1.75 a thousand. This Corner also specializes in sugarless fruits and even candies! Nice place. (1st fl.)

"WAGON WHEELS" and scooter wheels should merrily turn all summer and fall. The Snellenburg Toy Dept. has a grand assortment of vehicles to suit all budgets and all ages. For a bright example, there's a "Radio Flyer" all-steel coaster wagon featured at $9.98. Junior can do lots of odd jobs with it, and so can Sister! This "Flyer" measures 34x15½x4½ ins., has 10x1½ in. rubber tires. Other rubber-tired wagons from $1.69 up. Scooters are priced at $1.69 to $5.98. Let 'em have fun! (4th fl.)

LAST STAND against moths is at hand. Those last garments not sprayed for protection are crying for help. Personally, I'm using "Moth Gas."

It's a marvel preparation and requires little effort. Moreover, it's absolutely safe to use on furs. The "Gas" in liquid form, sprayed on garments, rugs, etc., leaves a white coating which gradually turns to vapor, killing any moth life. Buy it at 79¢ the pt., $1.35 a qt., $2.50 a ½ gal., $4.50 a gal. One pint is efficient in 47 cubic feet of confined space. A Moth-Gas vaporizer for closet hanging costs 89¢, refills 79¢. Moth Gas "hail" for packing away comes at 69¢, $1.49, $2.79. Moth-Gas "savers" for hangers, etc., are 6 for 39¢, 14 for 69¢. Good clothes insurance! Snellenburg Notions Dept. (1st fl.)

SWEET CEDAR wardrobes are a fragrant investment and a practical one. More and more of them are being sold in families wanting individual closet room, or for safe storage against invading moths. The Snellenburg Housefurnishings Dept. has an attractively designed one priced at $59.95. It can, however, be bought for $6 down, the balance to be paid monthly at a small carrying charge. The closet's double doors make it easy of access. The doors and sides are of solid cedar and the sturdy back is made of cedarized ply-wood. The over-all measurements are 63 ins. high, 21 ins. deep, 36 ins. wide. (3rd fl.)

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Three Distressed Groups

Washington, July 8.—Two of considerable importance and the third of not so much—are deeply distressed over the Dewey-Warren ticket. First, there are the labor-union bosses; second, the Southern Democrats; third, the so-called Americans for Democratic Action, window dressed by the Roosevelt boys, operated by old New Deal jobholders and supported by journalistic "liberals" of the "bleeding-heart" type.

TAKE first the labor bosses. The Dewey nomination seems worse to them than any that could have been made. Not only is Mr. Dewey for Taft-Hartley Act, which they continue to denounce as a "slave law," but distinctly he is less likely to submit to labor bullying or jealousy than any other. In 1946 he showed up these labor bosses as inept political frauds. In his campaign for re-election for Governor they were unitedly hostile. The American Labor party, the Liberal party, the Communists, the CIO, the AFL, the railroad brotherhoods and the whole radical vote of the state lined up solidly.

HE was given first place as an enemy of labor and every ounce of strength the labor bosses had was used against him. He not only beat them; he murdered them, carrying the State by the almost unprecedented majority of 700,000 and demonstrating the complete hollowness of their threats. It was as useful a demonstration, doing as much as anything to free Congress from the fear which had enabled the labor bosses, with White House support, to dictate to it for so many years. It is entirely natural for them to be against Mr. Dewey now. There is no place for them to go except to Mr. Truman or Mr. Wallace. If the Republicans win, their days of unrestrained and arrogant power are over—and they do not like the prospect.

TAKE next the Southern Democrats. In revolt against Mr. Truman because of his advocacy of anti-segregation and racial-discrimination legislation, under the general and misleading head of "civil rights." The Dewey-Warren ticket weakens their position for the clear reason that Mr. Dewey, on this issue, must be more offensive to them than Mr. Truman, whose actual position has been more than a little distorted. Mr. Dewey not only was for this "civil rights" scheme, which, as Mr. Donald Richberg has pointed out, really strikes at the basic liberties of the individual under the Constitution, and as Senator Taft has said, attempts to achieve by legislation a perhaps laudable end that just cannot be achieved by legislation—he not only was for these "civil rights" before Mr. Truman but actually put through a Fair Employment Practices Act in New York more than two years ago.

IN light of these facts, what inducement is there now for the Southern Democrats further to split their party by a revolt in convention against Mr. Truman, which would serve only to make Mr. Dewey's election more sure? Obviously none, and there are indications that since the Republican Convention the revolt has lost force and direction—particularly as the Dewey-Warren ticket has apparently closed the door on the last hope of "drafting" General Eisenhower.

FINALLY, there is the A.D.A., the leaders of which seem in an even more sticky fix. They started out by being anti-Wallace and anti-Truman. Apparently they are convinced that, by rights, the Democratic party belongs to them as the real representatives of the late Mr. Roosevelt. Not being—according to them—a real New Dealer, they decided long ago that Mr. Truman must be ditched and, though they are at heart for the eager Mr. Justice Douglas, that General Eisenhower must be drafted. For a number of reasons their position appears absurd. One is that Mr. Truman's nomination always seemed inevitable; for another, the A.D.A. leaders, with access to wide publicity channels, are yet without influence or delegates; third, that even had the Republicans gone "back to Harding" and straddled on foreign policy, the chances of "drafting" General Eisenhower were always exceedingly remote.

NEVERTHELESS, the idea is kept alive. The Eisenhower demand will be made in the Democratic Convention but it will get nowhere because it now has reached the point where there is no longer any thought that Mr. Truman can be pushed aside. Now, he is being appealed to, "for the sake of the party and the country," to step aside and personally ask General "Ike" to accept. There is not the slightest grounds for believing Mr. Truman will do such a thing, nor that if he did "Ike" would favorably respond.

So far as the latter is concerned, despite the inspired letters pouring in on him, it is difficult to conceive of him having so little sense.

THE OPTIMISTIC outpourings on the Eisenhower subject of the unsavory Elliott Roosevelt and the pretense of knowing that "Ike" is really receptive, insultingly reflect upon his sincerity and integrity but do not alter the situation. Those in best position to know assert that in the unlikely event of the convention nominating him, General Eisenhower would decline by wire. It is even possible another statement making presentation of his name impossible may come from him before the convention can act. As for the President, besides the fact that to yield would make a craven of him (which is the last thing anyone can make of him), exactly why he should pay any attention to appeals or demands from the individuals, personally hostile and inherently unimportant, who want him to "step aside," is not easy to see.

PENN A. C. LOSES 8TH STRAIGHT LEAGUE GAME

The Penn A. C. team lost its eighth straight game in the Bristol Youth League last evening as it bowed to the Fourth Ward Boys Club, 14-3, on the Memorial Park field. The Bristol Terrace team moved a step closer to first place while the Hibernians won to climb into third position. The Croydons and Bristol Township teams played to a 1-1 deadlock at Croydons.

"Lou" Pardo was the winning moundsman as "Vince" Faragalli's bats walked the Pennacs. It was the "Warders" second win of the season. Mauro and Genco led the winners at the plate with two hits each.

"Dave" Muth allowed Bell's Aces but one hit as the Bristol Terrace nine blanked the Aces, 6-0. The only hit of Muth was a single by Giagnacova in the third inning. The only other batter to reach base on Muth was Konefal who walked in the sixth. Only 22 batters faced Muth in the contest.

Terrace took advantage of the wildness of Konefal to pile up their lead early in the game. The winners played errorless ball all night. The Junior Hibernians rallied in the closing inning to score a close 4-3 triumph over the Newportville team. Frank Rubino and Paul Schmidt were the opposing hurlers. An error, a hit by Goshline, a hit by Mauro, and Rubino's single scored the winning markers for the Hibs in the sixth inning.

Lane Conn and Joe Ashby were the opposing twirlers in the 1-1 tie between Township and Croydons. Conn held the Croydones to one hit until the seventh when Croydons scored a run to knot the count.

TWO SOFTBALL TEAMS MOVE UP IN LEAGUE

While Hunter-Wilson defeated the R. & H. Laboratory last week, R. & H. Flexiglas defeated both the Lab and Manhattan, to move one-half game up into first place.

On Monday evening, Ennis, of Hunter-Wilson, was the hero of the evening, when with the score 3-2 against his team in the seventh inning, he lined a double into right center to empty the bases and then scored on Benton's single to center. This spurt enabled Hunter-Wilson to gain a 6 to 3 victory over R. & H. Lab in a nip and tuck battle all the way.

Backed by an eighteen hit attack, Dave Ludwig pitched the Leedom softball aggregation to a stirring 13 to 4 victory over the classy Manhattan team. This was the first time this season that the Rug-makers were able to come up on the right side of the ledger. Ludwig, with perfect control, and some sparkling defensive play, was able to keep the situation in his favor. His only worrisome inning was the sixth, when the soap eaters mustered four hits to gain three runs. The big blow of the evening was a tremendous clout by Kratz of the Manhattaners, that the Leedom center fielder is still chasing. The Rug-makers barrage was led by T. Muffett, who had three for four for the evening.

Carnvale's homer in the sixth inning with the bases loaded helped Ralph Cahall defeat the R. & H. Lab for R. & H. Flexiglas by a score of 8 to 5. Betts drove in three runs on a triple and double, while Tranter drove in two with a homer to right center field. Once again the pitching of Cahall excelled as he came in to pitch two innings of hitless ball in relief of the starting pitcher, Johnson.

After two luckless trips to the well, Manhattan finally came back victorious, with 7 to 2 victory over the Fleetwings. Once again McKinney was the victim of poor support from his mates, as five of the winners runs were unearned.

LEGION JUNIORS WIN FIFTH GAME; DEFEAT NEWTOWN

With "Billy" Ennis and "Johnny" Pindar starring at the plate and Harry Eisenbrey pitching fine ball, the Bristol Junior Legion team won its fifth game of the Bucks County Junior Legion League with an 11-1 conquest of Newtown Junior Legion last evening on the Third Ward field.

Ennis was the man of the hour as far as Bristol was concerned. He appeared just at game time and was the ninth Bristol player. Otherwise, the localites would have forfeited.

In his first trip to the plate, Ennis found Pindar and Moll on base and promptly lined out a triple to right center to score both runners.

Later in the game he also had a single. Pindar scored three runs and drove in three others with a single and triple, and walk. Eisenbrey blanked Newtown for four innings and did not allow a hit until the fourth. He gave up three hits in all.

"Jimmy" Morrell pulled Eisenbrey out of a hole in the fourth when he made a nice catch of Angstadt's line drive and stepped on second for an unassisted double-play. The bags were loaded at the time.

3 School Boards Join Together as Pennsbury Unit

"Grades one through six for Lower Makefield and Yardley will be housed in Lower Makefield's two school buildings, probably with grades one through four at Lower Makefield, and five and six at Woodside. Falls grades one through five will probably be housed at the Falls School and grade six at the Woodside school. If space permits there will be opportunity classes for those requiring added personal attention or aid. Primary grades in all three districts will be under the direction of an elementary supervisor who will be charged with maintaining similar standards in all three elementary schools.

"Grades seven through nine (junior high school) from all three districts will use the Yardley building. It is planned to have added curricular and extra-curricular activities for the children in these grades.

"Grades 10 through 12 will use the Falls high school building. It is planned that high school training will center about a strong College Preparatory Course. There will also be a General Course and a Commercial Course for those whose plans do not include college. The added number of high school students will make possible a variety of courses never before available in this area.

"Lower Makefield children who are now attending 11th grade in other school systems will be permitted to continue on through 12th grade with the classes of which they are now members. Lower Makefield will continue to pay their tuition on the same basis as has been done in the 11th grade. Children who have completed ninth or higher grade will continue on at Pennsbury High School.

"School is scheduled to start on September 13. As in the past, bus transportation will be furnished where necessary.

"All instructional costs (salaries of faculties, textbooks, overhead costs, etc.) are included in a joint budget which is separated only as to elementary costs (grades one through six) and junior-senior high costs (grades seven through 12). These costs will be pro-rated among the districts according to the number of pupils attending from each district.

"Each district will retain title to and control of its buildings but the costs of ordinary maintenance and operation of the various school buildings will be shared by each district on a per pupil basis.

"The local boards will set their own tax rates in accord with their needs. Joint operation will bring in approximately $18,000.00 per year in additional State aid to the three districts but this is not paid by the State until a year later so no financial benefit will be felt during the first year.

"The new school system will be controlled by the joint board composed of the entire membership of each of the three component boards. Each board has one vote, and on all matters the voting is by boards, not by individuals. Each component board casts its vote according to the vote of a majority of its five members. The joint board must have the affirmative votes of all component Boards before it can act. Provision has been made for the admission of other school districts, should they be willing to join with us on agreeable terms.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

"Grades one through six for Lower Makefield and Yardley will be housed in Lower Makefield's two school buildings, probably with grades one through four at Lower Makefield, and five and six at Woodside. Falls grades one through five will probably be housed at the Falls School and grade six at the Woodside school. If space permits there will be opportunity classes for those requiring added personal attention or aid. Primary grades in all three districts will be under the direction of an elementary supervisor who will be charged with maintaining similar standards in all three elementary schools.

"Grades seven through nine (junior high school) from all three districts will use the Yardley building. It is planned to have added curricular and extra-curricular activities for the children in these grades.

"Grades 10 through 12 will use the Falls high school building. It is planned that high school training will center about a strong College Preparatory Course. There will also be a General Course and a Commercial Course for those whose plans do not include college. The added number of high school students will make possible a variety of courses never before available in this area.

"Lower Makefield children who are now attending 11th grade in other school systems will be permitted to continue on through 12th grade with the classes of which they are now members. Lower Makefield will continue to pay their tuition on the same basis as has been done in the 11th grade. Children who have completed ninth or higher grade will continue on at Pennsbury High School.

"School is scheduled to start on September 13. As in the past, bus transportation will be furnished where necessary.

"All instructional costs (salaries of faculties, textbooks, overhead costs, etc.) are included in a joint budget which is separated only as to elementary costs (grades one through six) and junior-senior high costs (grades seven through 12). These costs will be pro-rated among the districts according to the number of pupils attending from each district.

"Each district will retain title to and control of its buildings but the costs of ordinary maintenance and operation of the various school buildings will be shared by each district on a per pupil basis.

"The local boards will set their own tax rates in accord with their needs. Joint operation will bring in approximately $18,000.00 per year in additional State aid to the three districts but this is not paid by the State until a year later so no financial benefit will be felt during the first year.

"The new school system will be controlled by the joint board composed of the entire membership of each of the three component boards. Each board has one vote, and on all matters the voting is by boards, not by individuals. Each component board casts its vote according to the vote of a majority of its five members. The joint board must have the affirmative votes of all component Boards before it can act. Provision has been made for the admission of other school districts, should they be willing to join with us on agreeable terms.

"The Pennsbury Schools will be headed by a supervising principal whose primary duty will be the maintenance of high educational standards. There will be an administrative assistant in charge of buses, buildings, student activities, supplies, etc., and an elementary principal in charge of elementary supervision."

Pennsbury Joint Board members are: President, Forrest C. Jones; vice-president, Clayton W. Mills; treasurer, George B. Roberts; Warren F. Hietch, Elwood L. Burton, Vincent E. Casey, Charles F. Cook, James H. Fitzcharles, Hector C. Ivins, Carlton R. Leedom, (Mrs.) Marie A. Mackensen, Edmund L. Robinson, (Mrs.) Viva J. Satterthwaite, W. Paul Starkey, Alvan C. Thompson.

Western running-mate. Administration quarters forecast that convention leaders will "come East" to fill out the ticket.

Lane would please Southern Democrats who have "revolted" over the President's stand on civil rights. It was pointed out, Wagner, a World War II veteran now serving as Federal Housing expediter in New York City, would be expected to attract the labor vote and help the ticket against Governor Thomas E. Dewey in the GOP nominee's home state.

Administration sources recalled that the elder Wagner, who authored the original Labor Relations Act, outran the national Democratic ticket in past elections.

President Truman, it was stated, has not yet indicated a preference for Vice-President. McGrath said he believed it is Mr. Truman's "intention" to keep the second place decision a "free and open" matter for the convention.

McGrath said that administration advisors who conferred with the President Tuesday night regard Eisenhower's statement of non-availability for the presidential nomination as "definite and final."

He told newsmen he could not conceive that the convention would "exercise such poor judgment as not to take him at his word."

The chairman, junior Senator from Rhode Island, predicted that Mr. Truman will be nominated on the first ballot but conceded that the nomination will not be unanimous. McGrath said he would be "less than realistic" to expect a unanimous nomination because some delegates had announced they would not vote for the President.

Truck Driver Narrowly Escapes Death in Crash

DOYLESTOWN, July 8.—Trapped in the wreckage of his completely demolished stone truck, a Trenton Negro, missed death by a narrow margin yesterday noon, on the iron bridge that spans the Neshaminy creek along Dark Hollow road, at Jamison.

He is Albert Robinson, 29, of 21 Race street, a driver for the Lamberville stone quarries. A patient in the Doylestown Emergency Hospital, Robinson is in a serious condition, with a possible skull fracture and numerous lacerations and bruises.

According to Trooper Leonard Morgan, of the Doylestown substation of State Police, the accident caused damage estimated at $4,000, including nearly $1,500 to the bridge.

Robinson was hauling a load of stone to a road job nearby, from the Lamberville quarries. He lost control of his truck, on the bridge and crashed through the iron side structure.

Robinson was proceeding west on the bridge when the truck crashed through the left side and hung over the edge. The body of the truck was ripped clear of the chassis and the cab was wedged in accordion-like fashion against the rear that was loaded with stone.

A wrecking car was summoned from Doylestown and it was with considerable difficulty that Robinson was rescued. A cable which was used to pry the demolished truck apart to release the trapped driver.

Robinson was rushed to the Doylestown Emergency Hospital in the O. P. James Memorial ambulance, after receiving first aid at the scene by an assistant from Dr. Russell Green's office in Doylestown.

Final Court Approval Given To Change of Name

DOYLESTOWN, July 8.—Official announcement was made today by officers of The National Farm School and Junior College, that the final decree has been granted in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia county, by Judge Joseph L. Kun, for an amendment to the charter of the school to change its name to National Agricultural College.

The final decree, signed by Judge Kun, includes a paragraph providing a college education with power to confer degrees of Bachelor of Science in certain subjects, and to "designate the principal or registered officer of the corporation in Doylestown township."

The legal papers in connection with the change of name have been approved by the State Council of Education in accordance with the final decree of Judge Kun.

Tells of Menace of Communism To World

that some had too much and others too little; wars were recurrent, there were periods of depression, and unequal distribution of wealth. A manifesto was initiated to unite against the capitalists.

"Communism cannot exist unless one of three things are present: 1. There must be wide spread poverty and misery, 2. There must be an abridgement of free speech and assembly, 3. Ignorance must be prevalent."

Dr. Thomas cited the following ways to combat communism: "We must alleviate social injustice; we must abridge free speech, and inaugurate an extensive program of education."

He asserted that "We should give our students a better background of early history and political science, so as to understand present day 'isms' that are cropping up." The importance of our early history was stressed because here the seeds of American liberty were sown. There should be no abridgement of free speech, and religion should be practiced.

Paul Tavernier announced that this evening at 8 o'clock, there will be a meeting of all managers of the boys' teams at the Laws' residence in Parkland.

Dear Father, as we come to the close of another day may we reflect on the brevity of life. Our life is as a vapor—yet that vapor has an eternal quality about it. It is as a passing minute—still eternity is in it. Make us worthy of everlasting life. Give to our living that quality which cannot be touched by the twins of time: "change and decay." McGERR PITCHES FOR SCOUTS FROM CLEVELAND TEAM

Lanky "Bill" McGerr, former Bristol Suburban League hurler, pitched for Bordentown in the Central Jersey League last evening and made an impressive showing before scouts of the Cleveland Indians. McGerr was beaten 7-0 but his holding attributed to his defeat. He struck out nine batters and walked two.

McGerr will receive a try-out with the Cleveland team when that club comes to Shibe Park on its next trip east.

McGerr hurled four victories for the Goodwill Hose team in the Bristol Suburban League circuit, before he was asked to sign with the Bordentown team.

MOOSE SCORE SHUT-OUT WIN

The Moose softball team, behind the eight-hit shutout pitching of "Boots" Wilkinson, defeated Plain's Auto Boys by the overwhelming score of 16 to 0. Buddy George made several nice catches in center field and "Don" Crohe was the hitting star with three for four, one being a home run with two men on base.
